II. NOTEWORTHY INCIDENTS

A robbery was reported in the 4900 block of Las Virgenes Road. The suspect (a male Hispanic, 20 years of age, 5'9", 200 pounds, wearing a dark flannel jacket, dark jeans and a mask) entered the location, walked to the register, stated he had a gun and demanded U.S. currency from the clerk. Once given some cash, the suspect fled the location. (20-07190)

A Topanga resident was arrested for mail theft, ID theft and possession of burglary tools in the 23500 block of Park Sorrento. Deputies made contact with the subject regarding a traffic violation. During the investigation, numerous pieces of mail not addressed to the subject were found in large bags inside the subject's vehicle (blue 2020 Chevrolet Malibu). A counterfeit arrow key used to feloniously enter U.S. Postal Service mailboxes, credit cards in the name of other people and bolt cutters were also found inside the vehicle. The subject was on probation for forgery and identity theft. (20-07124)

A theft occurred in the 4700 block of Commons Way. The suspects, two female Blacks, entered the location and were carrying large bags. Both suspects began to place various items from the "Cough and Cold" section into the bags. They then exited the location without paying for any of the store items. They fled in a waiting vehicle (silver 2010 Mercedes) driven by an unknown suspect. These suspects had committed a similar incident thirty minutes before at the CVS in Agoura Hills. (20-07097)
