A robbery was reported in the 4700 block of Commons Way. The victim, a custodian, at the location saw the suspect sitting in the front passenger seat of the victim's vehicle. The suspect was a male, 5 feet 8 inches in height and 200 pounds, wearing a black mask, black jacket and blue jeans. The victim told the suspect he was calling the police. The suspect got out of the victim's vehicle and shoved the victim with both his arms in the chest area. He took the victim's cell phone, keys to the vehicle and the janitorial keys. The suspect fled running westbound on Calabasas Road and out of view. (20-06881)

A brandishing a deadly weapon incident (aggravated assault) occurred in the 4700 block of Commons Way. The suspect, a male Hispanic, 20 years of age, was seen walking around the location carrying a cereal box and a milk carton. As the suspect was about to exit the store (without paying for the store items), an employee asked him to pay for the items. The suspect told the employee that he was stealing them. The employee told the suspect to put the items down and exit the location. The suspect lifted his jacket, reached into his front right jean pocket, slightly pulled up a large silver blade and asked the employee "What are you going to do?" The employee backed away and the suspect ran away from the location. (20-06951)
