

RESEARCH YOUR FAMILY HISTORY WITH THESE GENEALOGY ONLINE RESOURCES AT CALABASAS LIBRARY

Ancestry.com, HeritageQuest Online, Newspapers.com World Collection and Fold3 are available from Ancestry.

Ancestry.com can be accessed FROM THE LIBRARY ONLY:

From <https://www.cityofcalabasas.com/government/library/online-resources> choose “Genealogy Online Resources from Ancestry” and scroll to “Ancestry Library Edition”. You will be directed to <https://www.ancestrylibrary.com/>

You can access Ancestry.com on your personal device when you are on the Library wifi, or use a library public computer.

HeritageQuest Online can be accessed both from home and from the library. To get there, go to <https://www.cityofcalabasas.com/government/library/online-resources> and click on “Genealogy Online Resources from Ancestry”. Chose “HeritageQuest Online”.

Explore the various options to find the name you want, or just click on “Begin Searching”. Research aids such as census records, city directories and military records can be searched.

Other available online resources include Newspapers.com World Collection and Fold3, both available when you sign in with your Calabasas Library card. See the “Genealogy Online Resources from Ancestry” page for more details.

And, visit our Free Genealogy Resources page at <https://www.cityofcalabasas.com/government/library/links-resources/free-genealogy-resources>. (Or click on “Free Genealogy Resources” from our Online Resources page.)

You can choose from numerous resources, such as the National Archives, FamilySearch and RootsWeb to continue or supplement your ancestry research.
