II. NOTEWORTHY INCIDENTS

A resident of North Hills was arrested for robbery in the 26700 block of Agoura Road. The subject entered the business where he selected store items and exited without paying for them. When an employee approached the subject in the parking lot, the subject punched the employee/victim several times in an attempt to flee the area.

A resident was arrested for felony domestic violence in the 3700 block of Lost Hills Road after assaulting his girlfriend during an argument.

A Woodland Hills resident was arrested for assault in the 4700 block of Commons Way. The subject was inside the location, had store items inside a cart and was swinging a knife around. The subject was approached by an employee when he retrieved the knife from his pocket and began to swing it around again. He then retrieved another knife and pointed both of them in the direction of the employee/victim.

A resident of Los Angeles was arrested for burglary in the 24500 block of Calabasas Road. The subject entered the location through an unlocked door and attempted to steal items from the showroom area.

An Oxnard resident was arrested for mail and identity theft in the area of Las Virgenes Road and Agoura Road. Some of the stolen mail was addressed to residents of Arleta, Garden Grove, Oxnard, Redlands and Upland. The subject's companion was arrested for possession of narcotic paraphernalia.
