A robbery was reported in the 23700 block of Calabasas Road. The suspects entered the business, walked to the fragrance isle, removed trash bags from underneath their clothing and proceeded to fill the trash bags with perfumes. One perfume fell on the floor and the employee bent down to recover it. The female suspect put her nails on the employee's hand and scared the employee. The suspects, a female and male, wearing all black, fled the location with the stolen property in a blue Honda Accord. An unknown person contacted the victim via text message and agreed to purchase the puppy. Two suspects arrived at the victim's residence on Las Virgenes Road. They told the victim they wanted to buy two puppies. Then they pushed the victim out of the way and entered her residence. Once inside, the male suspect grabbed a puppy and ran out of the home. The female suspect grabbed another puppy, however, the victim was able to pull the dog away from the female suspect. The suspects were described as a White male and White female in their 30's. (21-03878)
