Permit application reinstatement requests must be made within one year following application expiration date and within the same code cycle. Reinstatement fees are 25% of the original application fees. Application reactivation requests may be submitted electronically to buildingsafetyinfo@cityofcalabasas.com or at the Building and Safety counter at City Hall.

Generally, reinstated applications expire within 180 days from reactivation if the permit is not issued. Applications may only be reinstated one time. Should a reinstated application expire, a new application shall thereafter be required, along with payment of new fees and submission of new plans.
