II. NOTEWORTHY INCIDENTS

Two subjects, residents of Los Angeles and Las Vegas, were arrested for robbery in the 5800 block of Parkmor Road. The victim had arrived home and parked in front of his residence. As he exited his vehicle, he was approached by one of the suspects who pointed a handgun at the victim and demanded the victim's watch. Once the suspect received the watch, he fled in a silver Chevrolet Malibu driven by the second suspect. Deputies found the suspects in the vehicle and arrested them. (22-05162)

A Los Angeles resident was arrested for a felony domestic violence incident in the 4700 block of Commons Way. The suspect assaulted her boyfriend during an argument. (22-05473)

A residential burglary was reported in the 23500 block of Park South Street. The unknown suspect(s) placed a ladder next to the first-floor backyard entrance which lead to the second-floor balcony. Once on the balcony, the balcony glass door was smashed to gain entry. Ransacked the master bedroom, closets, restroom and office area. An Air Force academy ring was stolen. (22-05159)

A "hot prowler" residential burglary occurred in the 23400 block of Palm Drive. The victims were inside their second-floor master bedroom when they heard their dogs barking and glass breaking. The suspect(s) unknown had smashed a window and partially opened a sliding glass door, but no entry was made. (22-05020)

A residential burglary was reported in the 3900 block of Peartree Place. Suspect(s) unknown climbed up to the second-floor balcony and smashed the master bedroom rear glass door to gain entry. Ransacked the bedrooms on the second floor and the closets. It was unknown what property was taken during the incident. (22-04938)

Three theft incidents occurred at the same store in the 23700 block of Calabasas Road this month. Two of the incidents were committed by the same suspects (a male and female) who entered the business, selected store items, placed items into bags and exited without paying. They stole approximately $10,000 of various brands of fragrances. The third incident was committed by two females, and one was carrying a child. They entered the location, selected store items, and exited without paying for the items. It is believed one of the suspects hid the stolen property under her skirt due to the large bulge seen. Numerous cosmetics and fragrances were stolen. (22-05112, 05337, 05444)
