II. NOTEWORTHY INCIDENTS

A resident of Calabasas was arrested for residential burglary on Park Miramar. The suspect (victim's son) made entry into the home after being arrested twice for trespassing at the location, there were no signs of forced entry.
(23-04471)

A residential burglary occurred on Park Casino. Video surveillance footage showed four suspects in the rear yard of the residence. A rear sliding glass door was shattered to make entry. A Long Beach resident was arrested for the burglary; the remaining three suspects were able to evade capture.
(23-04169)

A transient was arrested for a theft, which was reported on Mulholland Highway. The suspect made entry, selected store items, placed the items in shopping bags, and exited without paying.
(23-04218)

Three incidents involving thefts of wallets were reported this month. The incidents occurred on Commons Way and Mulholland Highway. The victims were shopping at the locations, and when they went to pay for their groceries, they noticed their wallets were stolen from their purses.

In one incident, video surveillance footage showed a female distracting the victim while another female stole the victim's wallet.

The victims' stolen credit/debit cards were used at Costco, Target, and Walmart.
