II. NOTEWORTHY INCIDENTS

A residential burglary occurred on Edgeware Drive. Suspects unknown, shattered the rear glass sliding door to make entry. Video surveillance footage showed two males making entry into the residence. The suspects fled in a black SUV-type vehicle driven by an additional suspect. (23-03641)

A theft was reported on Commons Way. The suspects were three females who concealed makeup items in pouches attached to the inside lining of their skirts and then exited without paying for the merchandise. (23-03578)

Three incidents involving the theft of a wallet and purses occurred on Commons Way and Calabasas Road. A wallet was stolen from the victim's purse as she was shopping at a grocery store on Calabasas Road. The victim's stolen credit card was used at another grocery store across the street by suspect(s) unknown. A purse was stolen from a grocery cart while the victim was shopping at a location on Commons Way. Video footage from this incident showed the suspects, two males and one female, between 25 to 35 years old, snatching the victim's purse from the shopping cart. The other theft of a purse occurred at a restaurant on Commons Way. Video footage showed a female suspect sitting behind the victim; then, she took the victim's purse which was on the ground and exited the location. (23-03326, 23-03434, 23-03915)
