Calabasas Stories - Exploring our History Thursday, May 23rd at 5:30 p.m.

Join Calabasas Library's archivist/historian Brian Rooney for a trip back through time as he explores filming in Calabasas from 1914 to today with scenes from famous and favorite movies.

He is also the author of Three Miracle Miles, which offers a glimpse into the history of the area surrounding Malibu Creek State Park.

No reservations needed.

To better share our past, the Calabasas Library created a website called the Calabasas History Project at www.calabasashistory.org. With 200 photos and more added often, this special website gives everyone a great glimpse into our interesting past. You can access the website from home, but there is a dedicated computer in the Library, where you can access the website, as well.

Please share your old photos with us -

If you have historic photos or items related to Calabasas or surrounding communities, please contact Library Archivist Brian Rooney at archives@calabasaslibrary.org or 818-224-1757 so that he can scan your items for our archives and return them to you.
